General Provisions of Open Meeting Law

- I. What is the open meeting law and why is it important?
 - a. Section 13D of Minnesota State Law
<https://www.revisor.mn.gov/statutes/?id=13D>
 - b. Ensures that meetings of governing bodies are conducted in public where public has access to decision making process
 - c. Prohibits actions being taken in secret where it's impossible for the public to be fully informed about decisions or to detect improper influences
 - d. Protects government officials from accusations that business was conducted improperly
- II. What groups must abide by the open meeting law?
 - a. Best answer = all governing bodies and committees
 - b. Examples = city councils, county boards, soil and water conservation district boards, watershed district boards, watershed management organization boards, town boards, governing boards of school districts
 - c. Also applies to committees of governing bodies
- III. When does the open meeting law apply?
 - a. Best answer = always
 - b. Quorums of any governing bodies or committee of the governing body
 - i. Quorum = minimum number of members required to be present to legally conduct business, usually a majority
 - c. Anytime the quorum is meeting to discuss, or receive information about, the business or work of the governing body
 - d. Even when action is not being taken
 - e. Does NOT apply if group is getting together socially and NOT discussing business
- IV. What are the key elements of the open meeting law?
 - a. Meeting notices are required for regular, special, emergency, and closed meetings
 - b. Meetings must be open to public, in a public space
 - c. Meetings must be within borders of governing body's jurisdiction
 - d. Meeting materials must be available to public at the meeting
 - e. Meeting notes including voting record must be maintained and available to the public (usually in the form of meeting minutes)

- V. How does the open meeting law apply to the use of telecommunications?
 - a. Officials cannot “attend” meeting by phoning in
 - b. Can use interactive video (such as Skype) only if:
 - i. All officials can see and hear each other
 - ii. Members of the public at the meeting can see and hear all officials
 - iii. Offsite officials are located in a place accessible to the public¹
 - iv. At least one official is at the regular meeting location
 - v. Proper notice was given regarding the location of offsite officials
 - c. Use of telecommunication tends to disrupt the meeting
- VI. How is the open meeting law most often broken?
 - a. Not often
 - b. Email use among officials can be problematic
 - i. Serial emails from one official to another and another, essentially discussing an issue
 - ii. Using “reply all” on an email to all officials of a governing body (avoid this problem by using “blind copy” on emails to group of officials)
 - c. Failure to properly notice a meeting
 - d. Officials wanting to call into a meeting
